General Information

The application is supported by all modern browsers. We highly recommend that you use a current version of Google Chrome, which supports Windows, Mac, and Linux platforms.

Prior to starting an application, please complete the following steps:

Step 1: Learn requirements for submitting an application

Before you begin an application, we recommend to contact the J.W. Fulbright Commission in the Slovak Republic regarding country requirements.

Step 2: Record user name and password in a safe place

Your email address is your user name. When you create an account for this online application, record your password in a secure place. You can log in and out of the application as frequently as you like using your user name and password.

Step 3: Complete the application

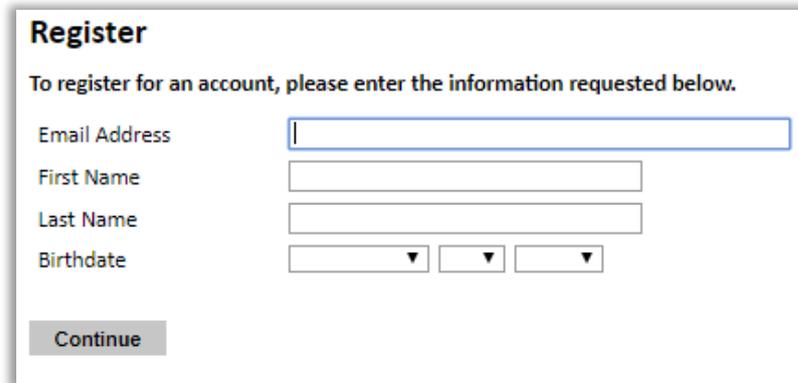

You do not need to complete this application at one time. You can re-enter at any time to edit your application. However, once you SUBMIT your application, you CANNOT make changes to it.

Step 4: Submit the application

Once you have entered all required information, including recommenders, review your application for errors. If all information is correct, submit your application. Once you submit you CANNOT make changes to your application.

Creating Your Online Account

1. To start, click Create an account.
2. Enter your email address, first name, last name, and select your date of birth (Month-Date-Year) from the drop-down menus. Your name must be entered exactly the way it appears (or will appear) on your passport.

The image shows a registration form titled "Register". Below the title is the instruction: "To register for an account, please enter the information requested below." The form contains four input fields: "Email Address" (a long text box), "First Name" (a text box), "Last Name" (a text box), and "Birthdate" (three separate dropdown menus for month, date, and year). At the bottom of the form is a grey button labeled "Continue".

Note: Use an email address that you will be able to access for at least two years after submitting your application. This is the email address you will use to log in to your application account. We recommend you do NOT use a work email address if you will not have access to it during your grant in the U.S.

3. Click Continue. You will receive an email from apply@iie.org confirming that you have started the application. The email will include a temporary PIN. Follow the instructions in the email to activate your account using the temporary PIN.
4. You will be prompted to enter your pin and then create a password to complete login.
5. Returning users: Click Log in and enter your email address and password. If you do not remember your password, click Forgot your password? and follow the resulting instructions.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE APPLICATION FORM (selected items)

Section: Project Proposal

To which category of grant are you applying:

If applying for Research/Teaching category, we require to include proposed course(s) name and syllabi you have agreed on with your host institution.

Project title: should briefly describe the focus of the award activity (for example: "Evaluating Fundamental Tax Reform in a Globalizing World").

Brief Summary of Project Proposal:

Rationale in a few sentences, provide a concise overview that easily allows non-specialists to appreciate the significance of the project and any potential contributions to the field. (Keep the given number of characters 700).

Project Statement:

The project statement is the most important component of the Fulbright application. It should be three to five single-spaced pages (3,500 words). We recommend to organize your proposal in order of the following points and use them as headings for sections of text in your statement. These points are an indication. You do not have to follow them in this order but should make sure to address them.

Background/Introduction:

Introduce the research topic. Place the project in academic or professional context by referring to major works by others on the subject.

Objectives:

Clearly define the aims of the project.

Methodology:

Describe the project. Explain the approach, methods, timeline and plan you will use (for example, interviews, library or archival research, or laboratory experiments). Indicate whether the proposed research is quantitative or qualitative.

Significance:

Explain the importance of the project for the field, your home country and your own professional development. Indicate what effect you expect to have on your teaching or professional work in your home country. (For example: new approaches to curriculum planning, student advising or pedagogy, expanding knowledge in the field through collaboration with U.S. colleagues). Describe briefly the expected impact of your participation on your home institution, community or professional field.

Evaluation and Dissemination:

Describe plans for assessment and distribution of research results in the Slovak Republic and elsewhere, if applicable.

Justification for Residence in the U.S. for the Proposed Project:

Indicate why it is necessary for the accomplishment of the project to be conducted in the U.S.

English Proficiency:

Describe your schooling in English, use of English and level of competence in speaking, reading and writing.

Academic Discipline:

When applying in a field of Arts, please, include your portfolio materials.

Intended Grant Period:

Candidates from the Slovak Republic can propose a grant length from three to six months. Indicate as precisely as possible the period during which you intend to carry out your proposed program in the U.S. It is recommended that you plan your program during the U.S. academic year (typically from September through May), when your U.S. colleagues are more likely to be available. The precise date of the scholar visit may be changed after nomination for the grant.

Institutional Affiliation:

We do require our candidates to arrange their affiliation during the time of submitting the application. Please, indicate only one institution (as accurate as possible) and provide us with invitation letter from the respective institution. Applications without invitation letter will not be accepted.

If you would like to conduct your research/ lecture stay at more than one institution, please, contact the Slovak Fulbright Commission.

Letter of Invitation:

Letter of invitation should be typed on institutional letterhead and signed. There is no special format for the Letter of Invitation. However, it should specify the name of applicant, the research/lecture activity related to the proposed project during the expected grant period at the host institution, including the exact dates (might be changed when nominated for the scholarship), as well as projected outcomes. It has to reflect both the existing and planned cooperation in the future.

Section: Grant & Travel Plans
